City of LaGrange Animal Shelter Continuing Half-Price Adoptions Due to Extreme Overcrowding

LaGrange, Ga. June 1, 2022- The LaGrange Animal Shelter is continuing to offer half-price adoptions through June 30th. All animals will be half price.

HALF PRICE
ADOPTIONS
THRU JUNE 30TH

The LaGrange Animal Shelter is located at 1390 Orchard Hill Road in LaGrange.
The Shelter is in need of donations including canned puppy food & old towels.

All adoptions are half off through June 30th

The animal shelter is experiencing extreme overcrowding. The shelter took in a total of 270 animals during the month of May. While the shelter was able to adopt out dozens of animals, it currently has 152 dogs and 72 cats still available for adoption.

“We are noticing the northern states have had an influx of animals returned to their shelters due to people returning to work since Covid has begun to slow down,” explains City of LaGrange Animal Services Supervisor Chris Bussey. “We are also in the middle of puppy and kitten season. It seems like every day we are taking in litters of puppies, kittens, or having a pregnant cat dropped off at the shelter. We are extremely overcrowded.”

The adoption fee for a cat/kitten is $8-$25 and for a dog/puppy $9.25-$37.50.
